PERSONALLY APPEARED BEFORE ME, CHALMERS EUGENE TROUTMAN,
III, who upon being duly sworn deposes and states as follows:

1. On December 7, 2007, my attorneys, with the firm of Collins & Lacy, P.C. submitted to the South Carolina Office of Human Resources, a draft Complaint with the request that it be made part of the record on my Appeal of an adverse determination on a Grievance I filed against Clemson University.

2. I assisted in the preparation of this draft Complaint. Much of its contents is based upon matters about which I have personal knowledge. Some of it is based on my good faith beliefs and inferences. Some of it also is documented in memoranda and correspondence which I received or generated during the time I served as Executive Secretary to the Clemson University Board of Trustees and Assistant to the President.

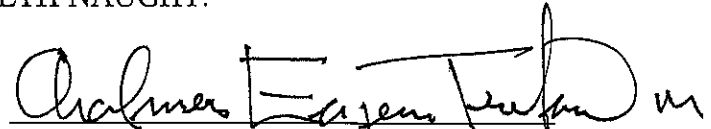

3. Some of the contents of this draft Complaint are based upon entries and personal notebooks or journals I maintained on a daily basis during my employment at the University. It was my practice to record important events, telephone conversations and other events in handwritten form in these notebooks, some of which are entitled "Memogendas."

4. Some of the matters set forth in the draft Complaint are reflected in notations made in my personal daytimers which I maintained during my employment.

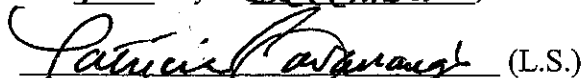

5. Some of the allegations of the draft Complaint are based upon information received from Scott Ludlow, David Stalnaker, Alan Godfrey, Cathy Tillett, Dr. Talmage Graham and Dr. Jeffrey Burden.

6. To the best of my knowledge and belief, all factual matters and all allegations of the draft Complaint are true. I respectfully request this draft Complaint be made part of the record of my file in the South Carolina Office of Human Resources.

FURTHER, YOUR AFFIANT SAYETH NAUGHT.
