

FITS Is G-r-r-r-reat!

In honor of our new website (and huge traffic increases), Clemson University President James Barker led the Tiger faithful in a rousing cheer for FITS over the weekend.

Seriously, 80,000 people got together at the Farmers' football stadium to say "Hip Hip Hooray!" for Sic Willie.

On top of that, President Barker agreed to cap tuition increases, submit to a Board of Regents, eliminate the school's wasteful PSA program and give back hundreds of thousands in exorbitant administrative raises.

What a guy!

UPDATE - Duh ... kidding.
